Studio apartment with terrace in a modern building with a lift, 10 minutes away from the Economics department and close to Pala Alpitour.

Located on the third floor of a building with a lift, this studio apartment opens to a small entrance with a desk and to a large and bright room with a kitchenette, a single bed that can turn into twins, a TV and a small table for two. The full bathroom comes with shower and a washing machine; moreover, there is a practical utility room. A large balcony furnished with table and chairs is perfect to either eat or study in the open air during the nice season.

This apartment is the ideal solution for students and business travelers that desire to stay in a quiet residential area, well-served and not far from the university and the centre. It is also suitable for tourists that want to take part in concerts and events in the area. Santa Rita neighborhood is a residential area that grew during the 1960s with recent buildings, shops and services. It was redeveloped on the occasion of the Winter Olympics in 2006 and with the inauguration of the Olympic Stadium.

The wonderful city of Turin, capital of Piedmont and known for its chocolate, offers countless opportunities and experiences. The city is known for its refined architecture, in fact there are sumptuous Baroque buildings to admire overlooking Turin's squares, like Piazza Castello and Piazza San Carlo. In the old town stands the Mole Antonelliana, one of the symbols of Italy, with the Royal Palace of Turin and Madama Palace. Turin offers attractions for every taste, from outdoor activities to gastronomy. For a walk in the greenery breathing the scent of flowers, guests can enjoy the Turin Botanical Garden located on the left side of the Po river, and the famous Valentino Park near the old town. Today the province is considered the best Italian centre as regards chocolate processing, and every year the "Cioccolato" event is inaugurated with parties, events and tastings. For a tasting of typical Piemontese dishes, do not miss Solferino and Consorzio restaurants.

Turin Caselle airport is reachable with a 30-minutes drive, while Turin Porta Nuova station is located around 4 km away.

NOTA BENE:

Il prezzo è calcolato a persona. Per ogni persona in più viene applicato un supplemento di 300euro sul canone mensile.
