Il centro Slash School pubblica su Emagister.it il corso di Grafica e Web Design. Questo corso punta a formare la figura del Web Designer il quale si occupa della progettazione, sviluppo e gestione di un sito web. A lui spetta il compito di coniugare design e navigazione mediante l'utilizzo delle tecnologie disponibili. Questa figura coniuga le competenze in progettazione delle interfacce web, fogli di stile (CSS), accessibilità ed usabilità, oltre ad architettura delle informazioni, e le fonde in un tutt'uno delineando quella che è l'architettura grafica di un sito web.

Verranno affrontati vari argomenti tra cui Storia, linguaggi e tecnologia del web, HTML e CSS, Adobe Dreamweaver CC.

Questo percorso ti consentirà di svolgere la professione di progettista di siti web.
