Litfiba Eneide di Krypton - 1983 - Rarità.

An artistic masterpiece by Litfiba, dated 1983 and almost impossible to find.

After the band's final break-up, the value of the vinyl in question has risen exponentially, not that it wasn't also previously, given the very few original pressings on the market.

Almost entirely instrumental, it was conceived and composed by the band on commission from Krypton, in order to use the songs on the record not only as a sound medium, but also as an integral part of their series of the last. The story of the band was in fact intertwined with the creative use of sound and light in theatre and film scenes. The drums, snare, bass and Piero Pelù mentioned during some episodes, in which Pelù recites some lyrics, were often repeated by the band.

The interconnection between the keyboards of Gianni Maroccolo's bass. All the songs are instrumental, and the lyrics from the Aeneid. The songs are almost entirely available on vinyl - 1983
