"Ruined Cities within Numidian and Carthaginian Territories"a very RARE and beautiful book by Nathan Davis (1812 1882) who was a British archaeologist known for his work on the site of Carthage. FIRST 1862 editon published by John Murray. "Ruined Cities within Numidian and Carthaginian Territories" really deserves to be better known as, until then, there was no description by any traveller of the ruined cities in Numidia, and in the territories of Tripoli and Pentapolis. This work is illustrated with four in-text and eight full-page steel engravings, as well as a folded map of Carthaginian and Numidian Africa. Book in good to very good condition. Inside binding shaky but all pages attached, illustrations and text clean and complete. Externally original blue decorated cloth with wear around corners and edges,spine lightly sunned with light losses of cloth-see photos. UNCOMMON. Chiudi
