Ad e. 90,00 vendo il gioco della VTech dal titolo DEPUTY DEN (Tri-Screen Time & Fun).

Si tratta di una console di gioco prodotta nel 1982 in stile Game&Watch della Nintendo.

Il gioco si sviluppa su tre schermi e quindi tre minigiochi che possono anche essere giocati autonomamente oppure in sequenza (per questo la confezione cita 4 giochi) e simula l'intervento di uno sceriffo per fermare una rapina.

Lo schermo in basso prevede un attraversamento in stile Frogger per giungere sul luogo della rapina.

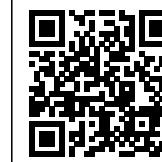

In quello centrale occorre sparare al rapinatore non colpendo il cassiere.

In quello in alto lo sceriffo ha seguito il rapinatore fuori e si svolge una scazzottata.

Il gioco viene venduto con la scatola originale, ma privo di istruzioni.

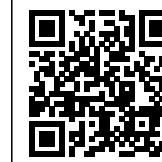

Il gioco è funzionante, ma con un difetto: nello schermo più in basso alcuni pixel/immagini sono mancanti. Nelle foto è possibile vederlo in quanto con la batteria appena inserita tutti i "pixel" si accendono. Lì è possibile vedere come, nello schermo in basso, ci siano tutti quelli a destra e tutti quelli a sinistra, ma mancino in una piccola striscia verticale centrale. E' comunque possibile giocare anche questo livello.

Insieme al gioco includo anche 4 batterie nuove (per far funzionare il gioco ne servono 2). Chiudi
