"David is great ! I've done with him the 10 lessons promotion for 3 times to prepare my chinese exam at university, and I've already pass it ! The lessons are focused on your requests and his methodology is very efficient! He is very lovely and patient, He explains to you all the things in a very clear way. I surely recommend his lessons, they are very helpful!"

"Listening and translating the Chinese book we are reading is a wonderful addition to my Chinese learning experience. I am usually focused on reading and speaking, but my weakness is listening comprehension. I really enjoy the time we spend together. It's almost like a game to figure out what is going on. Thank you very much David for a unique learning experience."

Hi! My name is David and I am a Chinese native speaker. I have been teaching for 6 years now on all levels. My students are from all over the world, aging from 8 to 65 years old. I also know English, so don't worry if you won't understand something!

What is the most important during my lessons is for you to feel comfortable and understand everything. I try to explain everything as clearly as possible. I make my lessons entertaining – if you want, I can tell you a lot of stories about China. I customize every lesson, because I know, that everybody has different needs, different pace and different style of learning.

I specialize in:

- Beginner Level
- Advanced Level
- Business Chinese
- Travel Chinese
- Exam Prep
- Conversations

I also have experience in international trade- if you need to learn Chinese for Business, I am a perfect teacher for you!
